Sir,

I have the honour to invite your kind attention to this office letter Nos.95 and 101 of 27th January 1911 and 8th February 1911 respectively re the Municipal Council's non-liability to pay charges of the nature referred to by the Officiating Executive Engineer, of the Water Works Department for constructing public fountains and to request that you will be so good as to obtain the very early orders of Government thereto, since applications for the erection of more fountains are being received from the public often on the ground that a general water tax is being levied from them.

I have the honour to be,
